

Printed book, several small tears to first pages, original dustjacket, some tears, bookplate from Twyford School.

FIVE GO MAPPING

The Map That Came to Life.

Author

DEVERSON, H.J. and LAMPITT, Ronald

Publication date

1948

Publisher

Oxford University Press,

Publication place

Oxford,

Physical description

Printed book, several small tears to first pages, original dustjacket, some tears, bookplate from Twyford School.

Dimensions

220 by 280mm. (8.75 by 11 inches).

Notes

A children's book telling the story of two siblings who navigate their way to a county fair using an Ordnance Survey map, learning how to use it and read the symbols in the process. John and Joanna set out for Dumbleford and on the way the map 'comes to life' as they learn how it relates to the actual countryside, and throws up several adventures on the way.

Bibliography

Provenance

Price: £500

Inventory reference: 10867

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025