

Two engraved prospects on two joined sheets.

LONDON BRIDGE

The West Side of London Bridge - The East Side of London Bridge.

Author

NICHOLLS, Sutton

Publication date

1710 [but 1724]

Publisher

Printed for & Sold by I. Smith in Exeter Exchange in the Strand,

Publication place

London

Physical description

Two engraved prospects on two joined sheets.

Dimensions

565 by 890mm (22.25 by 35 inches).

Notes

London Bridge as seen from both the west and east sides, with a panel of descriptive text beneath: "Historical Description of the great and admirable Bridge in the City of London over the River Thames", accompanied by a poem "London Bridge and the Stupendous Site, and Structure thereof...", and a key.

First issued in 1710, but included in Joseph Smith's 'Britannia Illustrata', 1724. Sutton Nicholls (fl1680-1740) is known only by his work, which consisted of topographical engravings of London and Westminster, published by Philip Ayres, Henry Overton, David Mortier, John Bowles, and John Stow.

Bibliography

BM 1880,1113.1531

Provenance

Price: £2000

Inventory reference: 17871

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025