

Engraved trade card

T IS FOR TOYMAN

Rich.d Severn Jeweller and Toyman... Makes Variety of Jewellers Work, & all Sorts of Burial-Rings, at y.e Lowest Prices. N.B. Graving in Stone in the best manner. Like-wise all manner of Busts & Figures in Plaster of Parris [sic].

Author

SEVERN, Richard

Publication date

[c1760]

Publisher

the Corner of Pauls-Grave Head-Court near Temple Barr,

Publication place

London,

Physical description

Engraved trade card

Dimensions

125 by 170mm (5 by 6.75 inches).

Notes

A beautiful trade card in the finest rococo style, the asymmetrical cartouche adorned with jeweled pendants, fobs, broaches, pings, a diadem, and a cameo.

Heal writes: "Pauls-Grave-Head-Court (also known as Palgrave's Court or Place occupied the space of ground which separates Essex Court from the Strand. A portion of the site is now No.222 Strand – Lloyds Bank. It would have been entered between Middle Temple house (Thanet Place formerly) & Deveroux Court".

Bibliography

BM Heal 67.356

Provenance*Price:

Inventory reference: 17825